2019 AGM & EDUCATION DAY

May 21-22 Delta Hotel

225 Woodstock Rd, Fredericton NB E3B 2H8

May 21st, 2019

13:00 – 16:30 Annual General Meeting

All members and honorary members are invited to attend.

18:00 Social Meet & Greet and Awards Ceremony

Enjoy a social evening with your colleagues! Appetizers and punch will be provided, and a cash bar will be available.

May 22nd, 2019

9:00 – 10:30 – Neville MacKay, CAFA, PFCI “That Bloomin’ Neville”

Affectionately referred to as "That Bloomin' Neville", Neville is a highly talented retailer and floral designer who is well respected for his quality workmanship and entertaining personality. He has had many television appearances, hosted numerous special events and presents to various corporate groups across the country.

As a speaker, emcee and host, Neville has been on stages across North America and has done work for celebrities such as Sir Elton John, Cher and Sir Paul McCartney. He is excited to share his passion and enthusiasm, tell tales from the front lines of the service industry and entertain us all!

11:00 – 12:00 – Kathy Arseneau & Susan Duff “Cannabis: What does it mean for me?”

Cannabis became legal in Canada on October 17th, 2018. What does this mean for you as an employee in regard to administration? What does it mean for you as an employer developing policies surrounding cannabis?

Kathy and Susan will walk you through these topics and more during their presentation on "Cannabis: What does it mean for me?"

12:00 – 12:45 Lunch (cost included in registration fee)

13:00 -15:30 “Person Centred Universe”

Ashley and Daphne will be providing an educational workshop entitled "Leading Practices in Providing Quality Person Centred Dementia Care".

In this presentation, they will guide conference attendees through a journey; to understand what it’s like living with dementia, how profound routine and history are to providing care, and how to better gather that information using tools and resources. They will provide information for attendees to gain insight into each person with dementia’s unique perspective while going through the disease and how we as care partners can provide a supportive and meaningful experience.
